Application/Interview Process

The Huronia Braves Lacrosse Selection Committee will be chaired by the President. The President is tasked with facilitating the process, plus if necessary, serves as the tie break vote only when the selection committee is unable to reach a decision. The focus of the Selection Committee is to review each application, checking references, and then recommend the best candidate for each representative team.

I understand that completing a Coaching Application does not guarantee a coaching position. I agree that if selected, I will:

1. Upgrade certification programs when necessary to comply with OLA standards. This includes submitting the notebook required to complete the course prior to the deadline.
2. Attend all Coaches meetings.
3. Organize the winter skills sessions for your division.
4. Comply with the Bylaws and Rules of Operation of the Huronia Braves Lacrosse Association.
5. I hereby consent to disclosure of this information, and authorize MMLA to collect information pertaining to this application.

I hereby certify that the above information is true and correct. I hereby certify that the above information is correct and is an accurate representation of my qualifications, and, if requested, be available to discuss my application with the Huronia Braves Lacrosse Coach Selection Committee.
